10 May 1922 –28 January 2017

EDWARD BUTLER HEARN was born on 10 May 1922 and raised in Salmo, BC where he attended both elementary and high school, graduating in 1940.

MW Brother Hearn worked for a short time underground in a gold mine before serving overseas for three years with the Canadian Army. He was installed as Worshipful Master of his lodge in 1965, 1973, 1986 and 1996, appointed District Deputy Grand Master for Boundary District No. 7 in 1975-1976 and elected Junior Grand Warden in 1988 at Vernon.

He served as representative for the Grand Lodge of Saskatchewan near this jurisdiction from 1992 until 2007.

Active in his community, he served on the Kootenay Regional Hospital Advisory Board, volunteered with the Nelson District Boy Scouts of Canada, and was a charter member of the West Kootenay Naturalists' Association. Over the years he has enjoyed playing badminton.

He is survived by his wife Dorothy of 58 years and their four children—Christine, Ron, David, and Lorna.

The will of God is accomplished.
