Lodges within the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia and Yukon are provided with this advertising style guide to assist them in promoting Freemasonry in their communities. Consistency, professionalism, and a reconciliation of the need for improved public awareness with a desire to maintain our Ancient Landmarks regarding the improper solicitation of members, has guided its preparation. The use of these advertisements is authorized by the Grand Lodge of British Columbia and Yukon. Other proposed usages should be forwarded to the Community Relations Committee c/o the Grand Secretary's Office for approval.
