Location of the Office of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia, 1974 to 1995.

The History of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia, AF & AM —1971 to 1995 was compiled by William G. Robinson (1926/02/19 – 2010/12/04). Born in Winnipeg, "Bill" Robinson served as DDGM for District 15 for 1988-1989, trustee of the Grand Lodge Archives from 2003 till 2006, Grand Representative for the Grand Lodge of Vermont for 2004 till 2010, and Grand Historian from 1991 till 2005. A professional engineer, RW Bro. Robinson was a Militia Colonel in the Royal Canadian Electrical and Mechanical Engineers, and active as an international judge for philatelic competitions. Initiated on 27 October 1949 into Cascade Lodge No. 5, in Banff, Alberta where he served as master for 1960-1961, he affiliated with Western Gate Lodge No. 48 at Vancouver, in 1984, and Cascade Lodge No. 12 at Vancouver, in 1986.

FOREWARD

There has been a recognized need to update the recorded development of Freemasonry in British Columbia for the period following the centennial year in 1971. With this in mind a special anniversary committee was appointed in 1995 in order to primarily arrange events in connection with commemorating the 125th Grand Lodge Communication. It was, in addition, charged with the task of preparing a historical record of the last 25 years. The committee is to be complimented on recognizing the nature of this important challenge and for completing the necessary work with such dedication.

Illustrated with treasured photographs from personal albums and local archives, this new history is gleaned from many sources and is an excellent supplement to the volume published for the centennial.

All of this involved a great deal of painstaking work on behalf of a few brothers whose freely given, enthusiastic efforts are very much appreciated. It is gratifying for me, as it must also be to all freemasons, to see this story told. It is my sincere wish that it will serve to enhance the knowledge and appreciation of all, and to deepen their sense of history as the continuing link from the past, to the present and future.

It gives me a great personal pride and satisfaction to see this book published and I extend my very best wishes to all who read its contents.

MW Bro. Clark M. Gilmour Grand Master, 1996-1997.

PREFACE

GENERAL — Some five years ago, the principal officers of Grand Lodge decided in their wisdom to have the Grand Historian prepare a history of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia, Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons, from the beginning of the 101st year in January, 1971, to the end of the 125th year in December, 1995.

Preparations have proceeded for the past five years in order to have this publication completed and available for publication at the 126th annual communication of the Grand Lodge, at Kelowna, in June 1996.

Hopefully, this target will be reached, and the brethren will be able to see whether the work fulfills their requirements. That landmark publication — The History of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia, 1871 to 1970 — has been used as a guide in planning the present book, and the organization of data will be found to be parallel for ease in comparison of statistics. Readers hopefully will find some favourable comparison with the depth of research of the former work.

LIMITATIONS — This volume is designed to deal with the history of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia from its 101st to 125th years, and it is designed exclusively to record the changes to, work and development of that body. Little mention is made of the constituent lodges, except as they are established by Grand Lodge, or celebrate their 75th, 100th, or 125th anniversaries. Because of the need for brevity, very few names are mentioned except those of esteemed brethren who performed outstanding acts, or when they passed to the Grand Lodge Above.

INTRODUCTION — The First 100 Years

We are most fortunate to have the excellent History of The Grand Lodge of British Columbia, 1871 to 1970, prepared by RW Bro. John T. Marshall. This sets out in exquisite detail the events from 1859, when Freemasonry was introduced into the Crown Colonies of Vancouver's Island and British Columbia, through the formation of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia in 1871, to the celebration of the centenary of that Grand Lodge in 1970. For those who do not have immediate access to that work, it may be of benefit to outline the main events leading up to the formation of the Grand Lodge, and the success of the first hundred years.

The First Freemasons -1858 to 1871

Many freemasons were among the miners flooding into British Columbia during 1858 as a result of the discovery of gold along the Fraser River. Victoria was the supply base for this area, and many miners doubtless stopped over or settled there. Freemasons among them held an organizing meeting on July 12, 1858, which resulted in a petition to the United Grand Lodge of England, and Victoria Lodge No. 1085, ER, was constituted in August 1860.

The first public mention of Freemasonry appeared at Victoria in the British Colonist of June 24, 1859, which mentioned that the Grand Lodge of Oregon, organized in 1851, had held its Annual Communication at Eugene on June 11. The Editor of the British Colonist was Amor de Cosmos (formerly William Alexander Smith), a freemason who was later Premier of British Columbia.

Most of the brethren coming from the United States were more familiar with the American Work, sometimes called the York Rite, and similar to the work practiced in Scotland.* Dr. Israel Wood Powell, a member of Elgin Lodge No. 348, SC, at Montreal, arrived in Victoria at the appropriate time, and his efforts resulted in the constitution of Vancouver Lodge No. 421, SC, at Victoria in October 1862. Further Lodges were formed at Nanaimo (No. 1090, ER), and at Victoria (British Columbia Lodge No. 1187, ER; and Quadra Lodge No. 508, SC). In the separate Colony of British Columbia, on the mainland, Union Lodge No. 1201, ER, was constituted in June 1862, and Cariboo Lodge No. 469, SC, at Barkerville, was opened in September, 1867. Mount Hermon Lodge No. 491, SC, was formed at Moodyville, on the north shore of Burrard Inlet, in January 1869.

The opening of these lodges led to the formation of a District Grand Lodge under the United Grand Lodge of England, with Robert Burnaby as District Grand Master; and a Provincial Grand Lodge of Scotland, with Dr. Israel W. Powell as Provincial GM. By October of 1871, there were four lodges in the District Grand Lodge of England, and five in the Provincial Grand Lodge of Scotland.

Confederation with Canada and formation of the Grand Lodge

The United Colony of British Columbia entered Confederation with the Dominion of Canada on July 1, 1871, and the freemasons there started to discuss the formation of their own Grand Lodge.

^{*} This was the Thomas Webb or New York working, and is unknown in Scotland. —Ed.

The lodges held a convention in October 1871, at which they decided to form the Grand Lodge of British Columbia. The first communication was held at Victoria on December 26, 1871, with Dr. Powell being installed as the first GM, and Robert Burnaby as IPGM.

Eight of the nine lodges joined immediately, but Union Lodge in New Westminster could not afford the initial fees, and was given the Number 9 instead of No. 2, which it deserved because of seniority. *

The Coming of the Railway -1885 to 1895

The first new Lodge was Kamloops No. 10, formed in 1885 as a result of the commercial impetus of the Canadian Pacific Railway on the town. The next was Mountain No. 11, at Donald, a CPR Divisional Point on the Columbia River. This was the first Canadian Work Lodge in the Grand Jurisdiction, and later moved to Golden. Mount Hermon Lodge No. 7 had moved from Moodyville (North Vancouver) to the booming City of Vancouver, but many of the CPR men from Ontario wished to have a Canadian Work Lodge, so Cascade Lodge No. 12 was organized in 1888. Other Lodges were opened at Lansdowne in the North Okanagan (Spallumcheen No. 13), at Courtenay on Vancouver Island (Hiram No. 14), at Revelstoke, another CPR Divisional Point (Kootenay No. 15), at Mission Junction, east of Vancouver (Pacific No. 16), New Westminster (King Solomon No. 17), Nanaimo (Doric No. 18), Chilliwack (Ionic No. 19), Vernon (Miriam No. 20), Wellington on Vancouver Island (St. John's No. 21), and Acacia No. 22 at the rapidly growing Vancouver.

The Kootenay Mining Boom — 1895 to 1910

Silver and base metals were discovered in quantity throughout the Kootenay region in the southeast of British Columbia late in the 19th century. Railways were extended, towns grew, and twelve new lodges (numbered 23 to 34) were chartered between 1894 and 1901. The period 1902 to 1910 was also a period of prosperity, and twenty-four new lodges were formed (numbered 35 to 58) in locations from Fernie, in the southeast corner of the province; to Prince Rupert and Dawson City in the northwest.

The First World War -1911 to 1920

Prosperity continued from 1911 to 1914, and nineteen more lodges (numbered 59 to 77) joined the Grand Lodge. Freemasonry was relatively stagnant during the war, with many freemasons overseas, but expansion started again in 1918, with fourteen more lodges (numbered 78 to 91) being placed on the register by 1920.

Semi-Centennial to Depression — 1921 to 1930

The 50th Anniversary was celebrated in style on June 22, 1921, at Victoria. The remainder of this period was prosperous with thirty-one lodges added to the rolls (numbers 92 to 122). The Great Depression started to influence the economy in 1929, and soon worsened.

Depression, War and Declining Membership — 1931 to 1940

This period was generally known as the "dirty thirties." Only five new lodges (numbered 123 to 127) were chartered, there were closures and amalgamations, and the total membership declined.

^{*} This overlooks the influence of Henry Holbrook's objection to the new Grand Lodge's formation. —ed.

World War and a Rising Economy — 1941 to 1950

Between 1941 and 1950 membership rose from some 13,060 to 19,000, and twelve new lodges were warranted (numbered 128 to 139). Most of these were in urban areas, but they included lodges at Fort St. John in the Peace River block, and at Hope in the eastern Fraser Valley.

Industrial Progress and Changing Social Structure — 1951 to 1960

The 100th Anniversary of Freemasonry in British Columbia was celebrated on June 17, 1959, during the Annual Communication of Grand Lodge at Victoria. Membership stood at 27,000 by the end of the decade, and tremendous highway development improved motor traffic everywhere. This had a great effect on the pattern of masonic attendance. Thirty-four new lodges were formed (numbered 140 to 173), and Freemasonry appeared to be flourishing.

Active Economy, Inflation and Social Unrest — 1961 to 1970

Although still strong and active, Freemasonry was beginning to feel the effects of the social changes sweeping the world. Membership declined somewhat to about 25,000. Six more lodges (numbered 174 to 179) were chartered in Vancouver suburbs, and at Prince George and Fort Nelson — reflecting the growth produced by the completion of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, and the improvement of highway access to the north country.

So, after 100 years of life, the Grand Lodge of British Columbia had grown from the eight founding lodges to 168 plus one under dispensation, and membership had grown from a few hundred to some 25,000 — by no means a poor performance.

CHAPTER 1 - 1971 to 1980 - Years of Prosperity

The rising tide of inflation and of social unrest noted by RW Bro. John T. Marshall in his excellent History of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia, 1871 to 1970, as characterising the decade from 1961 to 1970 continued and accelerated during the succeeding ten years. The trend to falling membership through deaths, demits, and suspensions resulting from the change in economic and social values which was noted between 1961 and 1970 increased considerably.

The Effect of World Affairs on Freemasonry

In his address to the brethren on June 23, 1977, the GM, MW Bro. Thomas Y. McLachlan, commented, "In the changing world of today we are confronted with a changing nature in our careless attitude regarding speech, dress and the responsibility of accepting the better things of life. Let us endeavour as freemasons not to forget our own responsibility and always be careful to present the true image of our wonderful and beloved Order."

During this period we saw internationally the Idi Amin coup in Uganda, the break-off of Bangladesh from Pakistan, the increase of sectarian violence in Northern Ireland, the withdrawal of USA troops from Viet Nam, the formation of the Republic of Afghanistan, the military coup in Chile, the Yom Kippur war (the 4th Arab-Israel war), a military coup in Greece, the Turkish invasion of northern Cyprus, the independence of Angola and Mozambique from Portugal, the start of the Lebanon civil war, a military coup in Argentina, a particularly nasty civil war in Ethiopia, the deposition of the Shah in Iran, virtual chaos throughout much of Africa, and the start of the Iran-Iraq war.

All these occurrences had deep effects on international Freemasonry.

In Canada we saw the effects of this upheaval in the shortages of supply and the vast increases in petroleum prices which limited the increase in prosperity occurring during most of this decade.

Rapid increase in interest rates and inflation limited disposable income and reduced the numbers of men with funds available to consider joining the Order. More women joined the work force, and double income families became much more common.

Centennial Celebrations

The 100th Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia was held at the University of Victoria on June 17 and 18, 1971. A special service of Thanksgiving and Rededication was conducted by the Grand Chaplain, Bro. Rev. W. E. Greenhaigh. This included the singing of a Centennial hymn composed by Bro. Leonard J. Humphrey of Nanaimo Lodge No. 110, and an inspiring sermon by MW Bro. the R Rev. Bro. G. R. Calvert, retired Bishop of Calgary, and PGM of Manitoba.

Congratulatory messages were received from most of the jurisdictions with whom this Grand Lodge was then in communication, and an exceptional number of distinguished visitors attended.

A centenary banquet was held, with the address of the evening being delivered by RW Bro. E. H. Rivers, PGS of Alberta. The main celebration centred on the monumental History of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia, 1871-1970, lovingly prepared by the Grand Historian, RW Bro. John T. Marshall, and his assistants.

The Challenge to Freemasonry

During the Centenary Banquet, the Toast to Grand Lodge was delivered by a Scotsman, Bro. Robert C. McHaffie, SD of Vancouver and Quadra Lodge No. 2. He likened the celebration to a "Gathering of the Clans," and asked, "What brings men together in such a body — what compels them to unite, to follow chosen leaders with a devotion that is sometimes inexplicable? It is the knowledge of their individual weaknesses and their total dependence on their combined wisdom and charity of their fellow men. Today, more than at any time in history, when there are more people living than have ever before lived, when peoples of all colours and creeds are becoming more socially intermingled and interdependent, the more is the need for the masonic brand of brotherhood."

The Decline of Membership

The high point of membership was reached in 1962, when 27,708 members were recorded. On December 31, 1970, the total was 25,563, while this had been reduced to 22,747 by the end of 1980. About 500 brethren died each year during the period, over 300 demitted, and over 200 were suspended for non-payment of dues — a loss of some 1,000 members per year. On the credit side, an average of some 400 were initiated, passed and raised, and 300 affiliated — a gain of 700. The net loss per year thus averaged about 300 members.

The Numbers of Lodges

At the end of December 1970, 169 warranted lodges were working on the rolls of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia, while this had increased to 173 through the constitution of five new lodges and the loss of one by the end of 1980.

Grand Masters 1971 to 1980

The varied professions and employments of the Grand Masters were again notable during this decade. They were respectively a logging contractor, a building contractor, an income tax accountant, a plumbing and heating contractor, an automobile dealer, a school administrator, a teacher, a municipal solicitor, a lumber executive, and an insurance representative.

Various areas of the province were represented, including northern Vancouver Island, the lower mainland, the Kootenays, the north coast, southern Vancouver Island, the southern interior, and the Fraser valley.

The Grand Masters who presided over the Grand Lodge of Antient * Free and Accepted Masons of British Columbia during the period 1971 to 1980 were:

- 92nd MW Brother Harper Piercey Baikie, from his installation on June 19, 1971 to June 23, 1972.
- 93rd MW Brother Frederick Winfield Coffin, from his installation on June 23, 1972 to June 22, 1973.
- 94th MW Brother Wilfred Henry Rogers, from his installation on dune 22, 1973 to June 21, 1974.
- 95th MW Brother Matthew Lyle Barr, from his installation on June 21, 1974 to June 20, 1975.
- 96th MW Brother Thomas Younger McLachlan, from his installation on June 20, 1975 to June 18, 1976.
- 97th MW Brother Alexander S. Mitchell, from his installation on June 18, 1976 to June 24, 1977.
- 98th MW Brother Edwin James Lockhart, from his installation on June 24, 1977 to June 23, 1978.
- 99th MW Brother William Lang Stirling, from his installation on June 23, 1978 to June 22, 1979.
- 100th MW Brother William Joseph McCoid, from his installation on June 22, 1979 to June 20, 1980.
- 101st MW Brother Edward Annetts Clarke, from his installation on June 20, 1980 to June 19, 1981.
- Honorary Past Grand Masters MW Bro. William Tyre — June 24, 1977. MW Bro. Walter S. Owen — June 22, 1978,

^{*} The "Antient" spelling was inconsistently used throughout the twentieth century. —ed.

Communications of Grand Lodge

Improvement in highway, ferry and air transportation allowed the use of more host cities, as follows: 1971 — Victoria, 1972 — Nanaimo, 1973 — Vancouver, 1974 — Victoria, 1975 — Penticton, 1976 — Vancouver, 1977 — Prince Rupert, 1978 — Nanaimo, 1979 — Vancouver, and 1980 — Kamloops.

The number of emergent communications again declined to a total of eight for the decade. There were none in 1973, 1974, and 1978. The dates, locations and reasons for those held were:

June 3, 1971 — Chilliwack Laying of cornerstone, new temple.

July 2, 1972 — Port Hardy Constitution, Rainbow Lodge No. 180.

July 19, 1975 — Roberts Creek Constitution, Harbour Lodge No. 181.

Sept. 18, 1976 — Vancouver Constitution, Blue Mountain Lodge No. 182.

August 20, 1977 — 100 Mile Ho. Constitution, Mt. Begbie Lodge No. 183.

August 18, 1979 — New Westminster Constitution, Langley Lodge No. 184.

May 24, 1980 — Vancouver Laying of cornerstone, Royal Arch Masonic Home

Sept. 13, 1980 — Maple Ridge Laying of cornerstone, new hall, Prince David No. 101.

In geographical distribution, three were held in the Lower Mainland for laying cornerstones, while the five for constitution of new lodges were held at northern Vancouver Island, the Sunshine Coast, and at larger halls in Vancouver and New Westminster for lodges located at Coquitlam and Langley, in the Lower Fraser Valley.

Loss of a Lodge

Mount Caro Marion Lodge at Ocean Falls was forced to surrender its warrant in 1972 because of massive changes in the economy. The large paper mill, which had been the basis of the town, closed because of obsolescence and inability to finance needed modernization. Most of the people left the area, and those few remaining could no longer continue the lodge.

The New Lodges

During the decade 1971 to 1980, only five new lodges were established by the Grand Lodge of British Columbia. Two of these were in rural areas where other lodges were far away, while the remaining three were in bedroom communities of the expanding metropolitan Vancouver area.

Rainbow No. 180

This first Lodge near the north end of Vancouver Island [in Port Hardy] was instituted by RW Bro. William Sharp, DDGM of District 22, on August 14, 1971. It was constituted by MW Bro. Frederick W. Coffin and his officers on Saturday, July 22, 1972, on the recommendation of the 1972 Grand Lodge Communication. The lodge practises the Ancient ritual.

Harbour No. 181

Brethren at Pender Harbour, on the Sunshine Coast, petitioned Grand Master Coffin for a dispensation in 1972, This was refused on the recommendation of a special committee. The Lodge was finally Instituted by Grand Master Rogers on April 27, 1974. The ceremony was held at the hall of Mount Elphinstone Lodge No. 130 at Roberts Creek. The ceremony of constitution was carried out by MW Bro. Thomas Y. McLachian and his officers on July 19, 1975, at the same hall. This Lodge also practises the Ancient ritual.

Blue Mountain No. 182

Like their brethren at Pender Harbour, the petition of the Coquitlam members for a dispensation was refused in 1972. The lodge was finally instituted by MW Bro. M. Lyle Barr on April 15, 1975.

It was constituted on September 18, 1976 by MW Bro. A. S. Mitchell and his officers. The ceremony was held at the new Freemasons' Hall, 1495 West 8th Avenue, Vancouver. The lodge meets at the Port Coquitlam Hall, and works in the Canadian work.

Mount Begbie No. 183

MW Brother Thomas Y. McLachlan instituted this lodge at 100 Mile House, in the Cariboo, on March 13, 1976. It was constituted by MW Brother Edwin J. Lockhart and his officers at the 100 Mile House Community Hall on August 20, 1977. This Lodge also practises the Canadian work.

Langley No. 184

A Dispensation was issued by MW Bro. Edwin J. Lockhart, and this lodge was instituted by RW Bro. George Tyre, DDGM District 25, at Eureka Masonic Hall in Langley, on February 16, 1978. The ceremony of constitution was carried out in the New Westminster Masonic Hall on August 18, 1979, by MW Bro. William J. McCoid and his officers. The lodge works in the Emulation work.

HISTORIC OCCASIONS

A Centenary Birthday -

On April 18, 1980, Br. George W. E. Alchin of Kilwinning Lodge No. 59 celebrated his 100th birthday by carrying the Book of Constitutions before the Grand Master at an emergent meeting of the Lodge. He was initiated March 7, 1924, and had been a faithful attender for the past 56 years. He was presented with an inscribed clock by the lodge, and with a wallet containing a one-hundred dollar bill by the DDGM, RW Bro. Donald H. Beale, on behalf of the lodges of District 15.

A Cornerstone Laying -

An Emergent Communication of the Grand Lodge was held on May 24, 1980, to lay the cornerstone for the Royal Arch Masonic Home at 7850 Champlain Drive, Vancouver. MW Bro. William J. McCoid officiated at the ceremony in the presence of some 350 members and visitors. This represents the first such ceremony in the second 100 years of this Grand Lodge, and only the third in the past 35 years.

In Memoriam -

We should note the passing of the following Past Grand Masters during this decade —

MW Bro. J. H. N. Morgan - GM in 1950-51, died January 8, 1971,

MW Bro. Alex. Curran - GM in 1953-54, died September 13, 1974,

MW Bro. Frederick W. Coffin - GM in 1972-73, died Jan. 15, 1977,

MW Bro. J. Murray Mitchell
- GM in 1951-52, died May 9, 1978,
WW Bro. Nicholas Mussallem
- GM in 1970-71, died Oct. 23, 1979.

Anniversary Celebrations -

Three lodges celebrated the 100th anniversary of amalgamations —

Victoria-Columbia Lodge No. 1 is One Hundred -

On April 5, 1877, Victoria Lodge No. 1 and British Columbia Lodge No. 5 amalgamated to form Victoria-Columbia Lodge No. 1. A centennial celebration was held April 15, 1977 by W Bro. Wallace H. McKay and his officers, in the presence of the GM, MW Bro. Alexander S. Mitchell, the DDGM, RW Bro. Donald W. Wakelyn, and many brethren. A well-documented history of the lodge was delivered by MW Bro. Kenneth Reid.

Vancouver and Quadra Lodge No. 2 is One Hundred -

This Lodge was formed May 16, 1877, by the amalgamation of Vancouver Lodge No. 2 and Quadra Lodge No. 8 in Victoria. W. Bro. Bert Storar and his officers held a special programme on May 18, 1977, to mark this auspicious occasion.

Ashlar Lodge No. 3 is One Hundred -

On December 8, 1873, Nanaimo Lodge No. 3, BCR (formerly Nanaimo Lodge No. 1090, ER) and Caledonia Lodge No. 6, BCR (formerly Caledonian Lodge No. 478, SC) amalgamated under the name of Ashlar Lodge and took the number 3 on the register of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia. The DDGM visited the Lodge on December 8, 1973, and a talk on the history of Ashlar Lodge was presented by RW Bro. George J. Knight. A sixty-year pin was given to W Bro. Walter Baxter, WM in 1919.

There were no centennial celebrations of the formation of new lodges during this decade, as no new lodges were formed from 1871 until Kamloops No. 10 was instituted in 1886.

Seventy-fifth anniversaries were celebrated by numerous lodges, as follows –

Cumberland No. 26 is Seventy-five -

MW Bro. Harper P. Baikie presided at this celebration on October 16, 1971. The RCMP flag team and a musical group led by W. Bro. Peter Godfrey contributed to the success of the evening, which was attended by over 100 brethren, MW Bro. J. Murray Mitchell and RW Brother E. T. Searle (age 96) were presented with 60 year recognitions.

Chapter 2 — 1981 to 1985 –

Recession and Inflation

The early 1980s were marked by serious inflation, double digit interest rates, and the worst economic downturn since the depression of the 1930s. Many factories closed through lack of demand for their products, and many workers were laid off. The information explosion started, and the trend toward part-time workers and two-income families accelerated.

The Effect of World Affairs on Freemasonry -

During this five-year period the world was in turmoil. Civil wars erupted in central America, President Sadat of Egypt was assassinated, Argentina invaded the Falkland Islands, Lebanon was in a state of anarchy, the USA invaded Grenada, President Indira Ghandi of India was murdered, there was heavy fighting between Iran and Iraq, and Mikhail Gorbachev became leader of the Communist Party of the USSR. These, together with the several attacks on Freemasonry have combined to produce a most difficult period for the Craft.

The Challenge to Freemasonry -

On April 25, 1984, the Duke of Kent, the Grand Master of the United Grand Lodge of England said:

"Brethren, you will be aware that the Craft has recently been the subject of another 'exposure', this time by an author who seems to make it a specialty to attack Freemasonry. Many of his arguments are on the basis that because some Freemasons may have misused the Craft, the Craft itself is corrupt, and that because we are staunchly private, our privacy is sinister. At the same time, fresh impetus seems to have been given to renewed expositions attempting to show why Freemasonry is incompatible with Christianity and it is even reported that local authorities are debating whether membership of the Craft is compatible with local Government."

He concluded with this excellent advice:

"Our best defence for the future is in our own hands, Brethren — if we take care to conduct ourselves so that when anyone is said to be a member of our Ancient Institution the world may know that he is a dependable, sympathetic, fair and kindly person: a good citizen, in fact, and one concerned in a practical way for his fellow men. This ideal is not exclusively Masonic, but if we are determined to strive for it, and can find some way, as individuals, or as a Lodge or an Institution, of quietly demonstrating what we are doing, I am confident we shall find that the public view of the Craft improves, that attacks (other than by the willfully malevolent) may become fewer and that we ourselves get even more pride and satisfaction out of belonging. We may even persuade our detractors, in the churches, local government and elsewhere that we have something to offer them which they need not fear or mistrust."

The Decline of Membership -

The decline noted in the previous decade continued at about the same rate. We had over 27,000 members in 1962, which declined to 22,747 at the end of 1980, and to 21,074 in December 1985 Initiations, passings and raisings continued to add over 400 per year, while an average of 300 per year continued to affiliate.

Annual losses averaged over 500 deaths per year, over 260 suspensions and 300 demits, leaving an annual loss of some 350 per year.

The Numbers of Lodges -

At the end of December, 1980, 173 warranted lodges were working on the rolls of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia. This had decreased to 172 by 1985, through the Constitution of two new Lodges, the loss of one, and the amalgamation of four others into two.

Grand Masters 1981 to 1985

Once again the universality of Freemasonry is shown by the employments of our Grand Masters during this period — a university professor, a civil servant, a lawyer, an automobile sales executive, and another lawyer.

The Grand Masters who presided over the Grand Lodge of Antient Free and Accepted Masons of British Columbia during the period 1981 to 1985 were:

- 102nd MW Bro. Donald J. MacLaurin, from his Installation on June 19, 1981, to June 18, 1982.

Two — at New Westminster and Mackenzie — for Constitution of new lodges, and one to amend the mechanics of holding an Annual Communication.

Loss of a Lodge –

Northern Lights Lodge No. 157, at Mayo in the Yukon Territory had been suffering for some time. The large silver-lead mine on which the economy of the area depended was hit with a lengthy strike, and many members moved away. The WM tried to also act as Secretary, and the last meeting was held in May, 1980. The Lodge owned their building and finances were in good shape. With regret, the Grand Master asked the Lodge to return its Charter in 1981.

Lodge Amalgamations -

Fidelity Lodge No. 32 and Emulation Lodge No. 125 at Trail were amalgamated December 30, 1982, under the name and number of Fidelity Lodge No. 32.

Chapter 3 — 1986 to 1990 — EXPO 86 and Rebuilding

The late 1980s was a period of optimism generated by the world acceptance of the International Exposition held in Vancouver, and known as EXPO86. British Columbia was exposed to world tourist traffic as never before, and many of the resource and industrial organizations in the province felt a surge in demand leading to more employment. Many of the full-time jobs lost in the early 1980s did not return, though, and many part time positions replaced them.

Real estate prices in Vancouver continued to rise — driven by immigration from eastern Canada, the United States, and the Asian rim countries — especially from Hong Kong, scheduled to return to China in 1997. This accelerated the move of younger working families to the suburbs, and caused problems for the urban Lodges.

The Effect of World Affairs on Freemasonry —

The world was still in turmoil during this period. President Duvalier fled Haiti, President Marcos fled the Philippines, American planes attacked Libya, ethnic civil war started in Sri Lanka, the USSR withdrew from Afghanistan, and there was war in the Persian Gulf. Russia continued its policy of 'Glasnost' and tension lessened with the western nations. Attacks on Freemasonry continued in Great Britain and the southern United States.

The Challenge to Freemasonry -

On April 27, 1988, HRH MW Bro. the Duke of Kent addressed the United Grand Lodge of England, as follows:

"Almost enough has been said for the moment about the General Synod of the Church of England's investigation into, and debate on, the compatibility between Freemasonry and Christianity. I was, needless to say, saddened by the conclusions of the Working Party's report and disappointed at its lack of objectivity. As a member of the Craft, I reject the report's imputations of heresy and, as a member of the Royal Arch, I wholeheartedly support Grand Chapter's resentment at the suggestion that its ritual is blasphemous. I am, however, encouraged by the prospect of continuing discussions with the Church and hope that before long it will come to accept again that Freemasonry's contribution to religion should be welcomed and not spurned."

In his June, 1989 address to the Grand Lodge annual communication at Vancouver, MW Bro. David L. Gibson said in part —

"We must ever remember that our primary task is not to make more members, not to save Lodges, but to make more of men. That can only be accomplished by demanding more of ourselves in what it means to be a Freemason. Brethren, it has been said that Freemasonry is action, not inertness. Let us never forget that Freemasonry is a progressive science in more ways than one. Recall, if you will, how much change has taken place since 1717. Where there is no change, there is no life, and where there is no life, there is but death. "

The Decline in Membership —

Membership declined from 21,074 at the start of 1986, to 18,885 at the end of December, 1990. Raisings during the period averaged about 370 per year; there were about 50 reinstatements and over 300 affiliations per year. These were offset by about 400 demits, 250 suspensions for non-payment of dues, and 500 deaths per year. This leaves an annual loss of about 440 per year.

The Numbers of Lodges —

In January, 1986, there were 172 warranted Lodges on the roll. By December, 1990, this had risen to 173 warranted Lodges and one under dispensation. New Lodges established were — Chetwynd No. 187, Comox No. 188, and Queen Charlotte Islands No. 189; while Light of the Rockies Lodge at Tumbler Ridge continued Under Dispensation. This was CARRIED.

CHAPTER 4 — 1991 to 1995 – The Boom to the Present

Although eastern Canada suffered a considerable recession during this period, international demand continued high for BC's resource products, and the local economy was buoyed by immigration.

The lower mainland area remained the fastest growing region in Canada, and the increase in real estate prices accelerated. This accelerated the move of working families to the suburbs, and the loss of membership in the urban lodges. Real incomes did not increase despite the commercial activity, and the unemployment rate continued at about ten percent. The rates for younger workers were much higher than this.

The effect of World Affairs on Freemasonry –

The highlight of this period was the demolition of the Berlin Wall, with the reunification of Germany, the break-up of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, and massive changes of government in Eastern Europe. Civil war broke out in Yugoslavia following the death of Marshal Tito, which massive intervention by a United Nations peacekeeping force failed to stop. Despite this, a Grand Lodge of Yugoslavia was formed and sought recognition.

The Challenge to Freemasonry –

The 1994 report of the Grand Secretary, RW Bro. Gordon J. Phillips contains the observation —

"Throughout the centuries, Freemasonry has played a valuable role in keeping alive the values that make life worth living — the importance of education, remaining faithful to the voice of conscience, offering mutual support and respecting others. All this tells us in no uncertain terms that there is nothing wrong with Freemasonry. We do not have to change our principles, our rituals nor our ties to our Brotherhood. No, more emphatically, we should not. What we do need to change is how we apply these basic principles to our profession. If we truly believe that we take good men and make them better, then we need to spend more quality time with these good men to ensure that we understand their needs and their interests. Our meetings need to become something that we cannot afford to miss. Those we do attend must give us a sense of worthfulness for having been a participant."

The Decline in Membership —

At the end of December, 1990, there were 18,885 members. Although there were about 350 raisings, 250 affiliations and 50 reinstatements per year, these were offset by some 400 demits, 200 suspensions for non-payment of dues, and over 400 deaths per year. These net losses of about 150 per year have reduced us to 16,797 members at the end of December, 1995.

The Numbers of Lodges –

In December, 1990 we had 172 warranted Lodges and one under Dispensation. During 1991 to 1995, Dogwood Lodge No. 192 was constituted at Aldergrove, and Alliance Lodge No. 193 was formed at Vancouver by the amalgamation of Kilwinning Lodge No. 59, Plantagenet Lodge No. 65, Empire Lodge No. 85, and Victory Lodge No. 94. Harbour Lodge No. 181 at Pender Harbour was closed. Mosaic Lodge No. 162 amalgamated with Crown Lodge No. 163 to form Mosaic & Crown Lodge No. 162, while Westpoint Lodge No. 155 joined Caledonia Lodge No. 136, Eastgate Lodge No. 176 joined Lynn Valley Lodge No. 122, and Crossroads Lodge No. 177 joined Mount Lebanon Lodge No. 72. This leaves 167 Lodges at December 31, 1995.

AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTIONS —

Section 3 was amended in 1991 to remove the requirement that Past Masters affiliating from another Grand Lodge should only become members of the Grand Lodge after being members of a constituent Lodge for three years or more.

The matter of gold-coloured apron trimmings for Lodges over 100 years old was again raised in 1991, and defeated. A centenary jewel for such lodges was proposed in 1992, and defeated.

The transaction of business in the E. A. Degree was again raised in 1991 and 1994, and defeated.

MW Bro. E. A. Clarke presented a report in 1991 proposing the establishment of a Grand Lodge Life Membership Fund. After minor amendments, the plan was approved, effective 1 January, 1992. This was amended in 1994 to allow amalgamating Lodges to continue use of existing Lodge plans.

In 1992, it was proposed that "Lewis Masons" be permitted to join at the age of 18 years. This was defeated.

Constituent Lodges were authorized in 1992 to sponsor amateur athletic sports teams for minor children.

A Grand Lodge Committee on Public Relations was established in 1993,* and constituent Lodges were authorized to sponsor Bethels of the International Order of Job's Daughters, or Chapters of the Order of DeMolay of Canada.

The Deputy Grand Master proposed in 1993 that a Grand Lodge Office of Grand Piper should be established. After much good-natured argument, the proposal was defeated.

Several minor amendments were passed in 1994 allowing the Grand Secretary to approve alternative forms of submitting Lodge annual returns.

In 1995, the IPGM was finally included in the list of Grand Lodge Officers contained in Article 3 of the Constitution.

A Board of General Purposes was established in 1995, following a favourable report by a Grand Lodge Committee.

Another Committee reported on the division of the Book of Constitutions into two sections — one containing the actual Constitution, and the other containing Regulations. This report was accepted, and we may look forward to this work proceeding in the near future.

^{*} The motion to amend the Constitution was withdrawn by the mover, and the incoming Grand Master was asked to consider appointing a committee, which led to the appointment of a Community Relations Committee. —ed.

In 1972, District No. 22 became Comox-Alberni District No. 22, while in 1985 the name reverted to Vancouver Island North District No. 22.

Concurrent Jurisdiction –

Concurrent jurisdiction was granted in various Districts, as follows –

- 1972 Atlin-Yukon District 11 Lodges 42, 45, 46 and 157.

The Committee on Warranted Lodges recommended the formation of Cowichan District No. 27 on Vancouver Island in 1978. The new District, containing Lodges No. 21, 33, 114, 151 and 170, came into existence in June, 1979.

The Splitting of Cariboo District No. 4 –

In 1986, the Committee on Warranted Lodges recommended that the Grand Master appoint two DDGMs for 1986-87 in this District, but that he defer consideration of a formal splitting of the District until 1987. Lodges 4, 69, 86, 113 and 183 were then placed in Cariboo District 4 South; while Lodges 119, 152, 178 and 186 became Cariboo District 4 North.

Peace River District No. 19 -

This District was established in 1937 with only one Lodge. In some years the District was administered by a DDGM from Alberta, while in one year a PGM acted as the personal representative of the GM. This changed with the improvement of communication between the Peace River District and the remainder of BC, and the increase in economic activity and population. For a number of years the DDGM was appointed for two years because of the light work load. By 1987, with the Institution of Light of the Rockies Lodge at Tumbler Ridge, this appointment was reduced to one year.

Vancouver District No. 20 –

Vimy Lodge No. 97 moved from Vancouver to Port Coquitlam in 1990, and, accordingly, was moved from Vancouver District No. 20 to New Westminster District No. 2. Similarly, Landmark Lodge No. 128 moved to Maple Ridge in 1993, and was transferred to North Fraser District No. 28.

CHAPTER 6 — The Public Ceremonies of Freemasonry, 1971 to 1995

Two types of public ceremony are performed by Freemasons in the open presence of all persons who wish to attend them. They are — the laying of corner stones for certain types of buildings, and the Masonic funeral service for a deceased Brother, at his request, or that of his family.

Both types of ceremony have not been nearly so prevalent in recent years as they were in the distant past. Those ceremonies for the laying of Foundation or Corner Stones, or for the commemoration of such events held in the past were –

June 3, 1971	The laying of a cornerstone for a new Temple at Chilliwack.
May 24, 1980	The laying of a cornerstone for the Royal Arch Masonic Home at Vancouver.
September 13, 1980	The laying of a cornerstone for a new hall for Prince David Lodge No. 101 at Maple Ridge.
November 28, 1981	The laying of a cornerstone for the Royal Arch Masonic Apartments at Vancouver.
June 5, 1982	The laying of a cornerstone for a new hall for Admiral Lodge No. 170 at Ganges.
June 6, 1982	The laying of a cornerstone for Emanu-El Synagogue, Victoria.
March 13, 1983	The laying of a cornerstone for a new hall for Star of the West Lodge No. 61, Nakusp.
September 8, 1984	Laying of a cornerstone for Freemasons' Hall, 1495 West 8th Avenue, Vancouver.
August 10, 1985	Laying a symbolic cornerstone for the hall of Cariboo Lodge No. 4, Barkerville.
April 3, 1993	Rededication of a monument, Ashlar Lodge No. 3, Nanaimo.
April 8, 1994	Laying of a cornerstone for Ashlar Manor, Victoria.
August 21, 1994	A church parade commemorating the 100th anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone of Christ Church, Vancouver, July 29, 1894.
TT1 1 -1

There have thus been a total of twelve such ceremonies in the twenty-five years covered by this history — nearly all for Masonic buildings. In the previous forty years from 1931 to 1970, RW Bro. Marshall records only six such ceremonies, and makes the comment –

"Others claim that there is a lack of interest on the part of the public; while still others claim that it is just another sign of the change that is taking place in human values and public responsibility. Whatever the cause, there appears a deep feeling of regret among most people that this colourful public ceremonial of Freemasonry has been allowed to die out in the Jurisdiction of British Columbia."

Thankfully, this trend appears to have been at least partially reversed during the past twenty-five years.

The second type of public ceremony — that for Masonic Funerals and Burial Services has also fallen into disuse in recent years.

Funeral Lodges still exist at Victoria and Vancouver for assistance with the burial of sojourning Brethren, but they are not over-worked. Many last rites now take the form of memorial services sponsored by a church, a Lodge, or other fraternal organization.

The writer is not aware of any public celebration of the Masonic Funeral Service or procession under the auspices of the Grand Lodge during the past twenty-five years. Constituent Lodges do still perform both the Masonic funeral and burial services on request of a Brother or his family — although such requests are now infrequent.

Any appointment made by this Committee shall be reported by the Grand Master to Grand Lodge at the next ensuing Annual Communication and Grand Lodge may thereupon confirm the appointment made by the Committee or direct the matter of the appointment to be returned to the Committee for further consideration. Such appointment shall continue from year to year until a new appointment is made in a similar manner, or until the Grand Secretary shall attain seventy years of age at which time he shall retire from office provided that the said Committee may recommend that his appointment be extended for one more year and Grand Lodge may, at its next Annual Communication, confirm that extension and such recommendation and confirmation may be made from year to year, provided that in no event shall any person hold office as Grand Secretary after he has attained seventy-five years of age. CHAPTER 8 — The Rituals

British Columbia is unique among jurisdictions in practicing four rituals among its Lodges. These are — the Canadian, the Ancient, the Emulation, and the Australian. They are fully described and explained in Chapter 21 of the History of the first Hundred Years of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia.

This Chapter is confined to a description of the work done by the Grand Lodge Committee on Rituals, and the changes adopted by Grand Lodge in the period 1971 to 1995.

1971 to 1980 —

The Committee was chaired by RW Bro. F. W. Coffin of Mount Hermon Lodge No. 7 during 1971 and 1972. He was succeeded as Chairman by RW Bro. Robert A. Gilley. Work continued on a revised burial service, a memorial service, and on additions to the Book of Forms and Ceremonies, which was reprinted in 1972.

In 1973 the Ancient (American) Work booklet was reprinted with some revisions, and in 1975 the Canadian Work booklet was similarly treated. The Book of Forms and Ceremonies was again revised and reprinted in 1976.

Work started on a study of the Obligations and Penalties in 1977, and continued for some years. Drafts were prepared in 1977 for a revised Board of Installed Masters ceremony, and the final version was approved by Grand Lodge in 1979.

1981 to 1990 —

In 1981, the Committee, still chaired by RW Bro. R. A. Gilley, studied the reduction in the length of Candidates examinations, and recommended against any change. A Special Committee on Penalties, also chaired by RW Bro. Gilley, recommended against any change because of the diversity of replies received from Lodges.

The Chairmanship of the Committee passed to RW Bro. Donald G. Pearce in 1982, and a revised Book of Ceremonies was produced.

The list of Forms was removed, and made available from the Grand Secretary's Office. The Rules for Masonic Trials were similarly treated. In 1983 a short form of examination was produced for the Ancient Work, and made available as an alternative; and a new printing of the Canadian Work was produced. In 1985-86 a revised Lodge Officers' Guide was produced, and the forms for Petition for Initiation, Sponsors' Declaration, and Report of Committee of Investigation were revised.

VW Bro. Stanley J. Beards assumed the Chair in 1986, and served until 1988. The Committee spent much time reviewing the physical penalties in the Obligations during 1986 and 1987. MW Bro. Donald W. Wakelyn became Chairman in 1988, and forms were devised for the investiture of Lodge Historians and Directors of Masonic Education.

A ritual booklet for the Board of Installed Masters was printed, and much effort was again expended in consideration of the physical penalties. Numerous requests from Lodges for changes to their rituals were reviewed and recommendations made to Grand Lodge. RW Bro.

George B. Phillipson assumed the Chair in 1993, and a modified form of ritual for dedication of a foundation stone for a public building was developed.

In October 1995, the Committee presented an exemplification of a Board of Installed Masters at the Vancouver Grand Masonic Day. This was well received.

Requests were also received for the development of an optional form of OPEN Installation or Investiture of Officers. This is proceeding and should be placed before Grand Lodge in 1996.

It is again emphasized that the Committee on Rituals does not have the power to change rituals — but only to make recommendations regarding such changes to Grand Lodge.

CHAPTER 9 — Masonic Education & Research — "The Masonic Bulletin"

The Committee on Masonic Education and Research was established by the Grand Master in 1937, and they commenced publication of The Masonic Bulletin in September, 1937, as a four page brochure with a circulation of 1,000 copies. Since then it has appeared regularly, grown in size to eight pages, and in circulation so that every member receives a copy with his Lodge notice.

RW Bro. N. Gordon McQuarrie of Caledonia Lodge No. 136 edited the Bulletin from June 1970 until June, 1977. He was succeeded by RW Bro. A. R. Eddie, who served until January, 1979. RW Bro. Frank C. Boshard commenced his term in February, 1979, and served until his death, February, 1988 At that time, the Grand Secretary, MW Bro. William L. Stirling, assumed the Editorship — assisted by an Editorial Board consisting of RW Bro. Douglas R. Grant, VW Bro. Andrew T. Law, and W Bro. James A. M. Addie. In July 1990, Bro. Grant retired (he was by then GM), and W. Bro. Addie was replaced by RW Bro. William G. Robinson. In June 1993, VW Bro. Law was replaced by RW Bro. James C. Gordon, and the Grand Secretary, RW Bro. Gordon J. Phillips became Editor, with RW Bros. Gordon and Robinson assisting as an Editorial Board.

MW Bro. William L. Stirling, PG Secretary, again assumed the helm in September, 1995,

The Vancouver Lodge of Instruction, Education and Research —

This Lodge was licensed by the Grand Master in 1947, and has been continued each year since then. Similar Lodges were licensed later in Victoria and Nanaimo (Mid-Island), and continue excellent programs.

Typically, these Lodges will be opened and closed by the WM and Officers of a visiting Lodge, and there will be a guest speaker. In some cases these may be local, but occasionally they have hosted the Prestonian Lecturers of Quatuor Coronati Lodge No. 2076, England, or other eminent lecturers. These have included W Bro. Michael Brodsky of the Grand Lodge of Belgium (Regular), W Bro. Neville Cryer of the United Grand Lodge of England, and RW Bro. Wallace McLeod of the Grand Lodge of Canada in Ontario.

Vancouver Grand Masonic Day —

This function was started in 1982 by the Vancouver Lodge of Instruction, and has been held in October each year since then.

The Fourteenth annual session was held in the Vancouver Freemasons' Hall, on Saturday, October 21, 1995, with the Grand Master and several hundred Brethren attending. The program included talks on — Our Masonic Apron, by VW Bro. John Salmon; The Morgan Affair, by RW Bro. Edward Cotton; Freemasonry — Are we a Religion?, by VW Bro. Andrew Law; Freemasonry — Fact or Fiction, by MW Bro. Edward A. Clarke; The Board of Installed Masters, by the GL Committee on Rituals; Floorwork for Deacons & Stewards, by VW Bro. Steve McVitte, GDofC; and History, Background and Origin of the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge F. & A. M., State of Washington and Jurisdiction, by their GM — MW Bro. William C. Rheubottom, This program is typical of the high quality we have come to expect, and Chairman VW Bro. Ross Daniels of Alliance Lodge No. 193 and his Committee, consisting of — W Bros. Philip Hayes, Joppa Lodge No. 112; Gordon Brisdon of Evergreen Lodge No. 148; and Arvid Kautz of Commonwealth Lodge No. 156 are to be sincerely commended for the success of their work.

Similar day-long sessions have been held at several places in the Province — including Victoria (eight years), Vernon and Kamloops.

The Committee on Education and Leadership —

The Grand Lodge Committee on Education and Research was renamed the Committee on Education and Leadership in 1993 to emphasize the need for emphasis on Leadership.

They have been active in promoting Wardens' Workshops — one in Courtenay in 1994 and the other at Chilliwack on the weekend of January 27-29, 1995; and have provided Lodges with numerous papers for the use of their Directors of Masonic Education.

They have been instrumental in the establishment of electronic Masonic Bulletin Boards at Victoria and Nanaimo. Through this technology, brethren can network via computer and modem, with other such bulletin boards about the continent.

The Craft Review Committee —

This Committee was established by MW Bro. Waldie Manion in September, 1992. Their mandate was to —

- (a) Improve the attendance and participation within lodges,
- (b) Enhance the public image of Freemasonry, and
- (c) Improve communications within our jurisdiction.

They presented an interim report at the 1993 Annual communication of Grand Lodge, and were continued in office by GM Grant Wardlaw for the 1993-94 year. During these two years they were instrumental in the renaming of the Committee on Education and Leadership, promoting the preparation of a membership kit, organizing and conducting a "Wardens' Retreat", preparing a new pamphlet aimed at prospective Freemasons, preparing a video on the Cancer Cars, promoting formal sponsorship of Chapters of DeMolay and Bethels of Job's Daughters by Lodges, and promoting full investigation of all demit requests.

This Committee deserves high praise for the content and quality of the recommendations on all phases of their terms of reference.

These appeared in the 1994 Proceedings over the signatures of RW Bro. G. Murray Webster as Chairman, MW Bro. David L. Gibson, VW Bro. Stephen Godfrey, VW Bro. Charles H. Oxley, and W. Bro. Philip Hayes as members.

The Masonic Advancement Committee —

In June, 1995, GM Clark Gilmour appointed this Committee to consider the formulation and implementation of a strategic plan for Freemasonry in British Columbia. Their terms of reference state —

"The key to survival and growth in Freemasonry lies in building an organization which recognizes the fundamental basis of the Craft lies within each Lodge, and seeks to support them. The entire organization must be relevant to today's community, having an outward focus, and whose purpose is dedicated to meeting the needs of its members, their families and the community. The strategic plan for the Grand Lodge of British Columbia must be predicated at this belief." A full report of this Committee is expected at the 1996 Communication of the Grand Lodge. The Committee consisted of RW Bro. R. William Headen as Chairman and the following members; MW Bro. William L. Stirling, RW Bro. Don T. Brown, RW Bro. William H. Carter, RW Bro. John T. Harper, W. Bro. William MacDonald, W Bro. Brian Tuckey and Bro. Robert Prince.

CHAPTER 10 — Fraternal Visitations with Other Grand Lodges

Chapter 23 of the History of this Grand Lodge from 1871 to 1970 sets out in detail the visitations made by Constituent Lodges and by the Grand Master and other Grand Lodge delegations. This listing will try to bring this up to date.

The Right of Visitation —

This right is of great antiquity and is too well known to require any amplification. At refreshment, there must be a toast to the visitors, if any are present, and a reply on their behalf. If visitors from the United States are present, it is customary to toast their President as well as the Queen, and for visits between Grand Lodges the National Anthems are usually sung.

Constituent Lodges Fraternal Visits —

Many of these were listed by Marshall, and most of these long- standing visits are still in effect. Examples of current visitations are between — Daylight Lodge No. 232, Seattle, and Meridian Lodge No. 108; Research Lodge No. 108, Portland, Oregon and the Vancouver Lodge of Education and Research; Ferndale Lodge and Progress Lodge No. 87; George Washington Lodge No. 251, Seattle, and Lodge Southern Cross No. 44; King Solomon Lodge No. 60, Auburn, and King Solomon Lodge No. 17; Doric Lodge No. 92, Ballard, and Mount Hermon Lodge No. 7; Bellingham Bay Lodge No. 44, and Adoniram Lodge No. 118; Kelso Lodge and Unity Lodge No. 106; Whidby Island Lodge No. 15 and Trinity Lodge No. 98.

Victoria-Columbia No. 1, BCR — Installation —

For many years it has been customary for the Grand Master and his Officers to install the WM and Officers of Victoria-Columbia Lodge No. 1, early in January. There is always a strong contingent of visitors from Washington present.

Cascade Lodge No. 12, BCR — Centennial —

In May, 1988 Cascade Lodge No. 12 and Cascade Lodge No. 5, GRA, Banff Alberta both celebrated their Centennials, These were celebrated by a mutual interchange of visits between the two Lodges.

275th Anniversary of the United Grand Lodge of England —

This Anniversary was celebrated in June, 1992, and the GM, MW Bro. Edward B. Hearn and his wife, Dorothy, attended along with MW Bro. James S. Hogg.

Lafayette Lodge No. 241, Seattle — International Night —

This event has been celebrated in November each year since 1921, and our Grand Masters have consistently attended — usually with considerable support from Grand Lodge Officers and others. It is a truly International meeting, including representatives from Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, California, and British Columbia.

The Banff Conference —

Each year, since 1941, the senior Officers of the four western Grand Jurisdictions of Canada, with visitors from the USA, eastern Canada, and many other distinguished Brethren attend this Conference.

The 55th Conference was held at the Banff Rocky Mountain Resort from September 28 to 30, 1995, under the chairmanship of MW Bro. W. Bruce Porter, IPGM of Manitoba. Twenty-eight delegates and observers participated, and twenty-two ladies were also present.

BC Delegates were GM Clark Gilmour and Sonia, DGM Alex Reid and Muriel, SGW Alan Tomlins and Gin, JGW Harold Nordan and Doreen, and GS Gordon Phillips and Ginny. Observers were GDofC Steve McVittie and Lillian, and GrH Bill Robinson and Megan.

The Conference was opened in Cascade Lodge No. 5, GRA, with the GM of Alberta, MW Bro. Gordon Macaulay and his Officers being received by W Bro. H. E. Whitbread and the members of Cascade Lodge. The distinguished visitors were then received by MW Bro. Macaulay. The theme paper, entitled — "Renewal, Change and Secrets Dispelled " was then delivered by MW Bro. Macaulay. The Conference papers, delivered by the SGW of each jurisdiction, included "The Assault from Within " by RW Bro. Alan Tomlins.

It should be mentioned that a 50-year history of this Conference was prepared by RW Bro. W. G. Robinson in 1990, and is available in the printed Proceedings of the 1990 Conference.

Other International Meetings —

The above listing has barely scratched the surface of the many international meetings which our Grand Masters, their Officers, and members of Constituent Lodges have attended in recent years. For reasons of space, it is not intended to be exhaustive, but merely to convey the flavour of these happy occasions. Reference to the Annual Proceedings of Grand Lodge will provide such details.

CHAPTER 11 — Foreign Recognition and Relations with Other Grand Lodges — Committee on Fraternal Relations —

A Standing Committee on Fraternal Relations was established in 1962 to recommend on the recognition of Grand Lodges by the Grand Lodge of British Columbia. Up to 1970, twentyone Grand Lodges had been recommended for and received such recognition.

Fraternal recognition of a Grand Lodge may be granted when it appears to the Committee on Fraternal Relations that recognition should be granted and the recommendation of the Committee has been adopted by the Grand Lodge of British Columbia in Annual communication.

Rules for Recognition —

That the Grand Lodge seeking recognition:

- 1. Shall have been established lawfully by a duly recognized Grand Lodge or by three or more regularly constituted Lodges.
- 2. Shall have no debarment from membership because of nationality of race; of colour; or of sectarian or political belief; that a belief in the GAOTU and his Revealed Will shall be an essential qualification for membership.
- 3. Shall ensure that all Initiates take their obligation on or in full view of the open Volume of the Sacred Law, by which is meant the revelation from above which is binding on the conscience of the particular individual who is being initiated.
- 4. Shall ensure that the membership of the Grand Lodge and individual Lodges shall be composed exclusively of men; and that each Grand Lodge shall have no Masonic intercourse of any kind with mixed Lodges or bodies which admit women to membership.
- 5. Shall have sovereign jurisdiction over the Lodges under its control; ie, that it shall be responsible, independent, self-governing organizations, with sole and undisputed authority over the Craft or Symbolic Degrees (Entered Apprentice, Fellow Craft, and Master Mason) within its jurisdiction; and shall not in any way be subject to, or divide such authority with a Supreme Council or other power claiming any control or supervision over those degrees.
- 6. Shall ensure that the three Great Lights of Freemasonry, (namely the Volume of the Sacred Law, the Square, and the Compasses) shall always be exhibited when the Grand Lodge or its constituent Lodges are at work, the chief of these being the Volume of the Sacred Law.
- 7. Shall ensure that the discussion of religion or politics within the Lodge shall be strictly prohibited.
- 8. Shall ensure that the principles of the Antient Charges, customs and usages of the Craft shall be strictly observed.

The Committee on Fraternal Relations has recommended, and the Grand Lodge Annual Communication has approved the following actions —

- 1971 The Grand Lodge of Iran was recognized.
- 1972 The Grand Lodges of Turkey and Luxembourg were recognized.

- 1973 The Grand Lodge of Austria and the Grand Orient of Italy were recognized.

- 1994 The Grand Lodges of Senegal, and Romania were recognized; while the Regular Grand Lodge of Italy, The National Grand Lodge of Greece, and the Grand Lodge of Honduras were not.

1995 — Action was deferred on recognition of the Grand Lodge of Upper India, the Prince Hall Grand Lodge F&AM of Connecticut, the Grand Lodge of Bulgaria, the National Grand Lodge of Greece, and the Regular Grand Lodge of Italy, pending receipt of further information.

Grand Representatives —

When Grand Lodges mutually recognize each other, it is normal for each to appoint Grand Representatives near the other. A list of the 1995 Representatives will be found in Part "G" of Chapter 15.

Reviews of Foreign Correspondence —

These reviews were printed in the annual Proceedings each year up to 1972, but were removed for reasons of economy. They were available to Brethren in separate form on payment of a nominal fee for several years thereafter. Interesting comments could be gleaned from the experiences of the fifty or more jurisdictions whose Proceedings were reviewed by the Committee.

In 1984, the Committee reported that — "Unfortunately, there is no demand for the Reviews produced by the Committee. At present, the members of the Committee feel that the time they are spending preparing Reviews is wasted and could be put to better use." They noted that in 1983 the Reviews were not published at all, and recommended that the incoming Grand Master determine "whether or not the work of this Committee is serving any useful purpose."

A Committee was appointed for 1984-85, and 1985-86, but they submitted no further reports. No Committee has been appointed since 1986.

CHAPTER 12 — Masonic Clothing and Regalia

Wearing Regalia in Public —

Section 247A of the Constitution states — "Without dispensation from the Grand Master, Masonic regalia shall be worn only in or in the vicinity of a Lodge that is, or is about to be, or has recently been open, or at a Masonic funeral or memorial service, or when attending a Divine Service organized by the Worshipful Master of a Constituent Lodge."

Wearing of Regalia from Former Jurisdictions —

In 1985, Grand Lodge approved the wearing of regalia from former jurisdictions except while holding office.

Lodge Emblems on Aprons —

A 1988 amendment to Sections 215 and 216 of the Book of Constitutions permitted Lodge emblems in the center of aprons.

Appointed Grand Lodge Officers' Aprons —

Section 122(a) of the Book of Constitutions was amended in 1988 to require the emblem of the Office to be embroidered in the centre of the apron, surrounded by a four-inch circle, all in blue.

Regalia for 100-year Lodges —

It was again proposed in 1990 that Officers' jewels be of gold, gauntlets be trimmed in gold braid, and aprons be trimmed with gold braid for Lodges more than 100 years old. This was defeated.

This was raised again and defeated in 1991, and the proposal for a centennial jewel for such Lodges was defeated in 1992.

The Immediate Past Grand Master —

In 1995, the IPGM was finally included in the list of Grand Lodge Officers shown in Section 3 of the Constitution. He wears the chain of office, jewel and apron of a PGM, as shown in Sections 117 and 120 of the Constitution.

Grand Piper —

A 1993 proposal to establish this Office, and define proper clothing, was defeated after much good-natured argument.

Clothing of Grand Lodge and Lodge Officers –

Other than the changes outlined above, the clothing and insignia of these Officers have not changed since 1970. Details are shown in Chapter 26 of the Centennial History, and in Sections 111 to 123, and 211 to 217 of the Constitution.

CHAPTER 13 — The Funds of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia

Part A

The Benevolent Fund

The establishment of a Benevolent Fund was approved in principle by Grand Lodge in 1871, and Regulations were written in 1873, Since then, the Fund has existed in various forms.

The Capital Account —

This was set up in 1873, with a balance of $936. By 19706 this had increased to $819,236, It is under the joint control of the GrS and GrT, with the advice of the Finance Committee. The funds are invested, and no amount in excess of $5,000 can be expended except by resolution of Grand Lodge, after due Notice of Motion.

Board of Trustees —

The revenue of the fund is administered by a five-member Board of Trustees. One member shall be appointed by the Grand Master each year. Most expenditures are for permanent relief, continuing assistance, temporary assistance, and for funerals. At the end of each year, the Board of Trustees shall recommend, and Grand Lodge shall determine what portion of the unexpended income shall be transferred to the Masonic Bursary Fund.

Application Through Lodges —

All applications for assistance must be made through the Lodge of which the applicant or a male relative is or was a member. These applications show the financial circumstances, the need and reasons for assistance, and the recommendations of the Lodge.

Part B

The Bursary Fund

A Grand Lodge decision was made on June 22, 1961 to establish a Masonic Bursary Fund, with a Capital Fund, initially of $30,000, to provide income, and an Income Fund to provide the actual Bursaries. This provided only about $3,400 per year, and many deserving applicants could not be helped.

Fifty Cents per Member Contribution —

In 1964, the Trustees pointed out that a Capital Fund capable of providing at least $10,000 per annum was required, and a request was made to Constituent Lodges that they provide at least fifty cents per member for the next five years.

Benevolent Fund Contributions —

For many years the Board of Benevolence has transferred surplus funds from their Income Account to the Bursary Fund. These, together with bequests, have provided the bulk of the capital funds.

Masonic Service Bureaus are operated in Victoria, Vancouver New Westminster. These form part of the Masonic Relief Association of the United States and Canada. Their funds are completely separate from those of Grand Lodge, and are not included here.

Part D The British Columbia Masonic Foundation

This Foundation was established in 1958 as a charitable organization for general and charitable work, not necessarily of a Masonic nature. At April 30, 1995, the Capital Fund stood at $533,996, and donations totalling $50,000 had been made to the Hope Cancer Health Centre, the Prince George Regional Hospital, and the Burnaby Hospital Foundation during the year.

Part E The Masonic Community Charities Fund

This fund was established in 1988 with a transfer of $25,000 from the Contingency Fund. The intent is to provide cars for conveyance of cancer patients to and from treatment centres. Each member has been assessed a capital contribution of $10.00 to cover the purchase cost of the vehicles, and $2.00 per year (later raised to $3.00) to provide for the operating costs. All driving and other labour is provided by members at no cost. Thousands of rides have been provided in the Vancouver/New Westminster and Vancouver Island areas, and these will be extended to the Fraser Valley and Interior as other Cancer Treatment Centres are opened.

Colophon

This history was compiled by William G. Robinson, whose biography is found on the frontispiece and on page 60.

The original book was 113 typewritten pages, reduced to 6" x 9", with a gold foil hardcover binding. There were seven halftone photographs plus photographs of the twenty-five Grand Masters for the period. As noted in the preface, the seven photographs were the work of Vancouver news photographer, Jim Harrison. Unfortunately, the originals were unavailable when this PDF version was made and the resulting rescreened halftones are not of the highest quality. As is the case with John T. Marshall's History and Robie L. Reid's Historical Notes, no record of its production and printing has survived, although it is known that the original book was printed with the help of a government grant. It is unknown if the terms of the grant required a large press run but apparently the choice was made not to pay for typesetting and publication design but rather to print an estimated 4,000 copies. This far exceeded demand and fifteen years later, in a 2009 house cleaning, some 20 cartons of books were disposed of by recycling.

This edition has corrected a few minor typographic errors and added a few updates. In producing this book it is hoped that no new errors were introduced. In 2018, Nic Desson—wintering in the Yukon and with far too much free time—arranged for a scan of the original to create a text file, and spent considerable effort cleaning up the inevitable optical character recognition artifacts. Both he, and John K. R. Keirstead of New Westminster who proofread the final galleys, have my thanks.
